

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Issuing of options to advisers

30 June 2009

Medical Therapies Limited (ASX:MTY) has issued 5.25M options to advisers as part of their remuneration. The options have an exercise price of five cents and a term of five years.

During the past year Medical Therapies has reached a number of capital restructure and product development milestones. This progress could not have been achieved without the competent guidance of industry experts and consultants.

Some of this contribution has been made pursuant to advisory agreements which provided for a remuneration structure involving a combination of cash and options. The current issuing of options represents the fulfillment of the Company's obligations in relation to these contracts. It does not include any issues to related parties and will not require approval by shareholders.

We would like to thank all of our advisers and consultants for their support and their expression of confidence in the Company by taking equity based compensation.
